WELCOME TO OUR WORSHIP

If you are visiting us for the first time we would like to get to know you better. Please fill in one of the yellow welcome cards and hand it to someone on duty before you leave. Better still, stay and have a chat over a cup of coffee after the 10.00am service. Children and young people are welcome to join the groups which meet during the service. Please feel free to take a toddler to the children's corner at the back of the church if they are getting restless, but do stay with them.

The chapel is available as a quiet place for prayer after services and whenever the church is open. Please feel free to take advantage of it.

Please keep the car parking space in the churchyard free for the disabled and frail elderly. Thank you.

Summer Fair: Items for tombola, bottle stall and bric-a-brac needed. Please place in the boxes at the back of church. Thank you.

Coffee Morning in aid of Children's Hospice: I am holding a coffee morning at 10, The Farthingales, Maidenhead (first left off Oldfield Road – opposite the new Miller Homes development) on Tuesday, 16th June from 10.30am to 12.30pm, in aid of the Alexander Devine Children's Cancer Trust who aim to found a hospice for children in this area. Coffee/Tea and homemade cakes will be served. All donations will be gratefully accepted for this very important local charity. A representative of the charity has offered to talk about their plans. Pat Human (T.635688)

As there were no TEAS on the 11th June it is hoped that those who normally attend will come to the 'Gentle Jazz and afternoon tea' on Wednesday, 24th 2-4pm instead. Contact Phyllis or Helen for tickets which need to be bought beforehand in order to know numbers for catering. Next Thursday Teas will be on 9th July.

akes Needed for St.Luke's Summer Fair: Saturday, 4th July 2009. Cakes of all sizes are needed for selling on the cake stall and for teas. Scones and any other creations would also be very welcome. All can be delivered to the Vicarage Garden on the day of beforehand to the following people. Cake Stall – Ann Darracott (T.620280): Small cakes for refreshments – Marian Brooks (T.633034)

Promoting our Taizé services: Our next International Taizé service is planned for July 5th at 6pm. Once again we would like to reach out to as many people of different ages, denominations and nationalities as possible. So please let me know if you have any ideas on how we might do this. For example, how might we promote the service through RE teachers in local secondary schools or reach people of other nationalities living in the local area? (And don't forget to put the date in your own diary) Kevin (T.783279)

Empty Bonne Maman Jars wanted: With St.Luke's Summer Fair now on the horizon I should be grateful for your empty Bonne Maman jars and lids so that I can prepare several batches of marmalade for sale there. Thanks – Jilly Bevitt (T.633464)

Waddesdon Manor: On Wednesday, 29th July, Waddesdon Manor (National Trust) is holding a special children's guided tour of the property including an elephant's trunk swing! As well as being fun for children it will be informative for adults. The tour starts at 11.30am before the property opens to the general public and for our group they will waive the usual tour charge (although the usual entrance charge for non-members still applies). Places on the tour are limited by Waddesdon so will be allocated on a first served basis, but there are no limits on the number of people visiting the house and grounds. We will take a picnic and make a day of it. If you would like a tour place please let Ann Burdett know as soon as possible (T.631486)
