Week commencing: 11th July 2021 Trinity 6, Parish Communion

So, the weather was not kind last Sunday, and we worshipped in church rather than outside. Hopefully in August we can try again!

This Sunday we have a parish Communion service at 10 am in church and on zoom. There is also an 8.00 am service in church for those who like a quiet, early service. There will be NO Sundays at Six this week.

Morning Prayer continues daily, Tuesday – Saturday on Zoom at 9am (now also Wednesday is back to 9 am); Evening Prayer, Fridays at 5pm. All Saints church also offers Night Prayer now on MONDAYS at 8pm.

Sundays at Six has now concluded for the summer break and will start again in September.

Thought for the week:

Today's gospel carries the rather gory story of the death of John the Baptist – hence the Greek Orthodox picture at the top of this sheet (read the story to understand it!). John really was the forerunner to the Messiah – he died even before Jesus, as a result of his honesty and integrity on preaching and calling out injustice and poor moral behaviour.

Still today there is a need for people to call out wrong - doing and to speak to truth, to encourage justice for all. This picture is of a wall painting (in the style of Banksy) at the entrance to a refugee camp in Bethlehem. It is just one example of courageous speaking out – in a creative way that makes the complacent think.

What injustices might we call out today, right here, or in our wider world?

A note from Sue Curley: A huge Thank you to the congregation of St Luke's church for all your prayers during my late husband's long illness. It was a tremendous comfort for Mick and all the Curley family to know that he was being held in your prayers.

I would also like to Thank the St Luke's shawl knitters - such a wonderful idea which served so well to remind us that God is always cuddling us even during our darkest days.
