Week commencing: 6th September 2020 Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

The new term has started. Autumn is upon us and we sense a little return to what we knew as 'normal'.

This week we will have an All Age Communion Service, using the order of service that we are used to – a copy is attached for you to print or download onto a device. As usual, you will find Sunday's RHP sheet (readings, hymns and prayers) attached to today's email. The order of service can also be found on the website. Please remember to bring your copy to church, either printed out or on a device.

For those of you joining by Zoom, this link works for ALL Sunday 10 am services:

What's on... and other news...

Mid-week Holy Communion: from this coming week we are re-introducing a service at 10 am on second and fourth Wednesdays. It will follow the Sunday pattern of: held in the main body of the church, socially distanced seating, private prayer from 9.40 am, bring your own order of service (download to a device or print from the website – the Sunday order), chat outside afterwards.

Sundays at Six: our shared evening worship with All Saints and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Cox Green, resumes TONIGHT, virtually, of course! We will hold a service of Night Prayer on Zoom on the first and third Sundays of each month, starting on 6th September. We will use the little blue book: 'Prayers for the use of the Church during the coronavirus outbreak', which many of you already have. If you plan to join in SAS and don't have one please email Revd. Sally and we will get one to you.

Meeting ID: 823 6275 5135

Passcode: 737489

Harvest Festival: we will hold an All Age Communion service on Sunday 27th September (live and Zoomed). Harvest gifts are invited of non-perishable goods (details to come) and small money gifts from which we will buy plants to deliver to our Harvest contact list. We will have pre-made cards for children to colour during the service and all will be quarantined before delivery later in the week. If you know of anyone who should be added to that list, or would be happy to deliver, please let Revd. Sally know. After the service everyone is invited to the churchyard for a drink and piece a (wrapped) celebration cake to mark Phyl's ordination the day before – and God's provision in Harvest.

Keeping Company, a meeting for those who are bereaved (at any time) starts up again – on a Friday afternoon at 3pm, in church. The first session is on Friday 18th September. We will meet, socially distanced for a cuppa and wrapped cake and chat, and then have a short reflection. All welcome.

Baby and Toddler group also starts again next Thursday. We meet for an hour 10-11 am in the Community Hall, with restrictions. Booking is essential as numbers are limited. Bookings weekly from Saturdays: sally514@btinternet.com. See our website for more details.

Looking for a good read? Phyllis Sigsworth has written about her life in the Police Force and beyond. 'A beat from the heart... to the heart of power', is published later this month and can be pre-ordered from Amazon: https://www.amazon.co.uk/Beat-Heart-Power/dp/1913532038/ref=sr\_1\_1?dchild=1&keywords=phyllis+sigsworth&qid=1596910776&s=books&sr=1-1. Phyllis will hold a book signing after church this Sunday, with books to buy then. all profit will go to the charity DASH, and two of the DASH trustees will be with her on Sunday.

RIDE AND STRIDE 2020: NEXT Saturday 12th September: Ride and Stride 2020 is going ahead! Do speak to Peter Goford if you'd like to participate.

Music News: Adam Went, our Director of Music, writes: I am really pleased and excited to announce that Tim Muggeridge will be joining us at the beginning of September as Assistant organist, with his first Sunday being on 13th September. Immediately after our 10am service, Tim will give a brief 30 minute recital and also talk to us a little about himself. Please do come along and helping to give Tim a warm welcome to St. Luke's. There will be a retiring collection which we will give to Tim.

As we are still not allowed to sing as a congregation, from 13th September, we will have gentle organ music in the lead up to the service, and a nice rousing voluntary to set us off on our way!

Choir practice will resume from Friday 11th September, at 8pm in church (socially distanced). Please do speak to Adam if you would like to join the choir.

Chalice gift: Roger Clarke has kindly offered to purchase a pair of chalices for the church in memory of his parents. The faculty notice for this is currently on the church porch noticeboard.

Equipping for life: do look at the various courses (long and short) offered by the diocese this autumn. Why not sign up to one – most are online so you can do it with a coffee from you sofa!

Inclusive Church news: the annual Inclusive Church lecture took place last week and is posted on the website – see <http://www.inclusive-church.org/events/the-inclusive-church-lecture>

News from Quench: From 1st September, Quench Christian Bookshop will be open 6 days a week, Monday - Saturday. Please note that Opening Times will be 10.30am - 3pm. If you need any help outside out of these hours, please email Ali on admin@quenchshops.com. Thank you for your support over the last few months.

Home security: it was reported at the latest Community Action group meeting that the Police have undertaken to do free home security surveys and have some security equipment for those deemed vulnerable. If you would like to take this offer up, please speak to Revd. Sally.

Face coverings: It is now being recognised that disposable face coverings contain plastics and are already appearing in our oceans. I am still making reusable masks which are just as effective. I can make them in a variety of colours including plain ones. You are still welcome to ask me for them, while helping to save the environment and to contribute as you see fit to church funds. Ruth Sheppard.

Church cleaning: Sally Somerville writes: At present with the limited use of the church and no refreshments, the areas to be cleaned are reduced. It is therefore possible, in one cleaning session, to do the church floors, vacuum the dais as well as the office lobby and do a quick going over of the basins and loos if it seems necessary. We shall have to be more far reaching later in the year - or next year, who knows? If anyone would be willing to join the cleaning rota please contact me.
