Week commencing: 24th and 31st July Trinity 6 and 7

Our service on both Sundays is a Parish Communion service at 10 am, in church and on zoom.

24th July

The Collect

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you
such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things
and above all things,
may obtain your promises,
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Post Communion Prayer

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Colossians

Brothers and sisters, 6as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, 7rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

8See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. 9For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, 10and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. 11In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; 12when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. 13And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, 14erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. 15He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

16Therefore do not let anyone condemn you in matters of food and drink or of observing festivals, new moons, or sabbaths. 17These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. 18Do not let anyone disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without cause by a human way of thinking, 19and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

Colossians 2. 6-19

The Gospel reading

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.' 2He said to them, 'When you pray, say:

Father, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

3Give us each day our daily bread.

4And forgive us our sins,

for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us.

And do not bring us to the time of trial.'

5And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; 6for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." 7And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." 8I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

9So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. 10For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. 11Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? 12Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? 13If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

Luke 11. 1-13

Sunday's Hymns:

492 Jesus, wher'er thy people meet

98 Lord teach us how to pray aright

421 Father of heaven, whose love profound

31st July

The Collect

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

The Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life,
ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion
that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Colossians

1If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. 2Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, 3for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

5Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). 6On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. 7These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. 8But now you must get rid of all such things – anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. 9Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices 10and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. 11In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all. Colossians 3. 1-11

The Gospel reading

13Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, ‘Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.’ 14But he said to him, ‘Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?’ 15And he said to the crowd, ‘Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.’ 16Then he told them a parable: ‘The land of a rich man produced abundantly. 17And he thought to himself, “What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?” 18Then he said, “I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19And I will say to my soul, ‘Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’” 20But God said to him, “You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?” 21So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.’

Sunday's Hymns:

368 All my hope on God is founded
482 Jerusalem the golden
390 Blessed assurance

Thought for the weeks:

Our gospel reading on 24th July is Luke's account of Jesus teaching about prayer, including the prayer that we now call, 'The Lord's Prayer'. Probably the most well known Christian prayer in the world, I don't think that Jesus intended it to be used quite as we do today, as a 'stock'; prayer, but he gave his disciples a summary of how they might pray. All prayer should include praise to God, usually first, not to 'butter God up', but as a reminder that all things come from God and that praise and gratitude should never be forgotten. If they are, we become less human. Prayer should also include confession – coming to God in recognition of our human frailty and asking for help in living as God would have us live – learning how to genuinely love others. And prayer should include intercession (asking) for our basic needs and those of others. Of course, God knows what we need before we ask, but often prayer can clarify our own thoughts and remind us of our reliance on our loving, generous God.

Perhaps we might spend some time this summer reflecting on our own patterns of prayer, and maybe using this model as a guide.

Prayer suggestions for these weeks:

Verger advert

We are seeking someone to fill the role of verger for church. Verging involves setting up for and supporting weddings and funerals – this is paid at the current rate of £40 per service. It would also be really helpful to have verger to set up for large services such as school services, during Holy week, confirmations etc, this aspect of voluntary. The verger clearly needs to be able bodied and reliable., and will need to have a DBS check. For more information or to apply, please speak to Revd. Sally.

Church Flowers

Rita has decided that it is time to hang up her secateurs and enjoy the flowers – that someone else has arranged! We give her heartfelt thanks for all of her hard work and the beautiful arrangements that she has created over the years. We are now looking for someone (or more than one person) to take over the organisation of church flowers... please pray about this – could God be calling you to take this lovely ministry on?

The Charles Davis Trust

This charitable trust donates supermarket vouchers to residents of the borough who are aged 70 and over and have savings not exceeding £23,250. There is a poster on the brown board at the back of church with more details. Do ask one of the clergy for an application form for yourself or to pass to someone you know who qualifies.

Parish Giving Scheme

At the recent PCC meeting we were all encouraged to consider moving our giving to the Parish Giving Scheme. The Parish Giving Scheme offers significant benefits compared to other forms of giving:

- Givers can choose to automatically increase their giving by the rate of inflation every year. This tackles the problem of 'static giving', where people's giving ordinarily remains the same year on year, while the costs of the church rise continually, due to inflation.
- Gift aid is automatically processed every month, reducing admin for church volunteers and improving cash flow.

You can find out more about the scheme here: <https://www.oxford.anglican.org/parish-support/parish-finance/giving-and-fundraising/parish-giving-scheme/parish-giving-scheme.php>

There are also leaflets to take away at the back of church.

Please do consider using this scheme for your own giving to the whole, work of this church.

Looking ahead...

Garden party, Sunday 4th September, 3pm. Join us in the vicarage garden for a fund raising Garden party to draw the summer to a close. Tickets are now available at £12.50 per adult (and £5 under 14s). Includes a glass of prosecco on arrival. Full tea, raffle and produce stall.

Eco Church: anyone interested in making a start at looking at how we can become more of an eco friendly church is warmly invited to an initial meeting in church on Thursday 18th August at 12.30 pm - light lunch provided. It would help with catering if you could let Revd. Sally know if you hope to come.

Quiet evening: space for quiet and to think, reflect or read... Thursday 18th August, from 7-9pm in the vicarage garden if dry (if wet, church). Short introduction at 7pm (come later if you need to) and Night Prayer at 9pm. All welcome.

The Big Question: the first of a series of discussion groups exploring topical issues from a standpoint of faith. Thursday 25th August, 7.30 pm, in church. Open to all. Why not bring a friend!

The Season of Creation: The Parish Community of St Joseph and St Elizabeth, Maidenhead, would like to invite the Parishioners and Communities of Churches Together In Maidenhead (CTIM) to attend an Ecumenical Service, at St Joseph's Church on Thursday 1st September 2022, to mark the start of this year's Season of Creation. The Service will begin at 2:00 pm and will be followed by a reception in Parish Centre. It is hoped that other Members of CTIM will join in the Readings and Reflection as we "Listen to the Voice of Creation."

Sundays at Six, this Autumn, All Services are at 6.00pm
