Week commencing: 25th July 2021

The Feast of St. James, Parish Communion

This Sunday we have a parish Communion service at 10 am in church and on zoom.

National covid restrictions were lifted last Monday and we now have guidance from the national church and diocese which enables local churches to make their own decisions (incumbent and PCC) about their own local situations, but encourages caution and protection of the most vulnerable. It is very clear that this is an opportunity for Christians to model a way of living within our restored freedoms in a way that 'puts the needs of others before ourselves', as Paul writes in Philippians 2. We will certainly proceed with caution.

To that end, the churchwardens and I have agreed that this Sunday there will be no changes – we will adhere to social distancing and request that the congregation wear face coverings inside the building. We will not sing yet – the choir will sing for us. We look at the rising statistics of positive cases with deep concern. We have kept everyone safe so far, we want to continue to do so!

Next week, assuming the weather is kind, our 10 am All Age Communion service will be outside in the churchyard. We will provide chairs and face coverings will be optional. We will be able to sing. Some folk may well wish to remain more distanced and we will allow for that. If you wish to bring your own, more comfy, chair, that is fine. After that we will be guided by the stats.

Morning Prayer continues daily, Tuesday – Saturday on Zoom at 9am (now also Wednesday is back to 9 am); Evening Prayer, Fridays at 5pm. All Saints church also offers Night Prayer now on MONDAYS at 8pm.

Sundays at Six has now concluded for the summer break and will start again in September.

Thought for the week:

Two weeks ago our gospel was the gory story of the beheading of John the Baptist. As we celebrate the feast of St James (the Great) today, we also note that he was executed by Herod (a little later) and that the Armenian Orthodox church in Jerusalem claims to be the keeper of his head – hence the tapestry picture above, found in that church.

James didn't always keep a level head when it was attached to his body! He and his brother John were two of the disciples closest to Jesus (with him at his transfiguration, see right) but they angered their comrades by asking of him special places in heaven.

James' ignominious death might be seen as 'comeuppance', but perhaps also serves as a lesson in humility for us all. There are no special places in Jesus' heart – he loves and cares for all – equally.

She will reach an amazing 100 years of age on 2nd August. She is not up to coming to church, but I have been invited to represent us (and offer a blessing) at a small family gathering. I have a general card from church but if anyone would like to add their own card do let me have it in the next couple of weeks. On Sunday 25th July I will record a few messages for her on video that I can then give her – if you'd like to join that recording please let me know.

Thursday Lunches We are planning to start our monthly lunches again at the Toby Inn at Stafferton Lodge on Thursday, 29th July, and it would be lovely to see as many as possible. Please let Jean (626671) or Phyllis (778656) know if you would like to come and we can give you further details. Tables are booked for 12 midday, but as numbers are fairly critical at the moment, it would be particularly helpful to know who is coming. As always, if you need transport, just let us know."
