Week commencing: 6th February 2022 Fourth Sunday before Lent, All Age Holy Communion

This Sunday we have an All Age service of Holy Communion at 10 am. We warmly invite families with young children to sit in the main body of the church at the front – on the comfy red chairs and small children's chairs that we will put out. Then you can see well what is happening and be a full part of the service.

We are leading Sundays at Six this week on zoom with Night Prayer on the usual link.

Although national restrictions are lifted we are encouraging folk to wear face coverings when moving around in church and particularly when singing. It is good to look out for and protect each other. To that end we will continue to anti-bac after services and if anyone would like to join that small team please speak to Sally S, a churchwarden, or Revd Sally.

Morning Prayer continues: Tuesday – Saturday on Zoom, at 8.30 am (9 am on Sat.)

Evening Prayer, on Fridays at 5pm also on zoom, except on the first Friday monthly.

We are now using the order for each day of the week.

Thought for the week:

'You cannot discover new oceans unless you have the courage to lose sight of the shore'

I love Luke's account of the call of Jesus' disciples. Simon and his fishermen friends were tired, fed up with having caught nothing and washing their nets ready to rest after a long, fruitless, night's work. Perhaps they had heard of Jesus before – they certainly couldn't avoid him that day as the noisy crowds jostled with each other to hear his teaching- and get a good view of the new teacher.

I wonder how Simon felt when Jesus commandeered his boat and used it as a watery pulpit – from which he could be seen and heard by the whole crowd.

Maybe Jesus was seek to repay Simon's floating hospitality by providing for the great catch of fish that he made when he did as Jesus asked. He could, of course sell them. But perhaps that was the last haul of fish that Simon and co sold for a while – Luke tells us that Simon and his friends followed Jesus from that day on – catching people – helping people to hear Jesus and to know God better.

Simon and his friends had the courage to listen to Jesus, to put out into the deep, and to trust his judgement. It changed their lives for ever.

Do we trust Jesus, whatever he asks of us?

World Day of :Prayer: This year's World Day of Prayer service is on Friday 4th March at 2pm at St Joseph's Church. The theme this year is 'I know the plans I have for you', prepared by the women of England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Historically Scotland does its own. It will be another 100 years before the British Isles can do it again so this year is really special and we would love as many to come as possible. Tea will be served after the service. Any enquiries to Gill Curry or Ruth Sheppard.

The WAMCF 'Joy of Movement' programme is running again in the Spring. This will be six on-line sessions at 6pm -7pm every Tuesday from 1st February to 8th March 2022. The tutor will again be Anisha Gangotra. These sessions are free to members of our faith communities. To join, email samuelsberks@aol.com for the link.

Inspire: the next edition of Inspire will be coming out in the Spring. Ruth would love to receive articles now (of any sort – Christmas reviews, photos, poems, reflections etc). Please email them to the office. Thank you for those that have come in – keep them coming!!

Maidenhead Festival is back this year on 23rd and 24th July. We are considering whether we should apply to have a stall on the Saturday in Kidwells park. If you have any thoughts on this and what we might do to show God's love in this place please have a word with ministry team.

Lent course: Come and See

Lent is still four weeks away, but this is advance notice of our Lent course. We will use the diocesan resource: Come and See, which this year focuses on The Lord's Prayer, and is open to anyone.

There will be five sessions, on Wednesdays (11 am, in person only, in church) and Thursdays (7.30 pm, on zoom only).

You may like to read the introduction below:

Read John 1:35-42

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, 'Look, here is the Lamb of God!' The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi' (which translated means Teacher), 'where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come and see.' They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas' (which is translated Peter).

What's going on in this passage from John's gospel?

Well, first we see that John spots Jesus, and points him out. He points him out in a way which intrigues those who are with him. They become curious, and walk behind Jesus, perhaps looking nonchalant, perhaps not really wanting to be seen, until Jesus turns round and asks them a direct question – what are you looking for? Not who are you looking for. What.

They seem caught off guard. Perhaps they haven't really thought about what they are looking for. So they reply with another question Rabbi, where are you staying? They don't want Jesus to disappear; they want to be able to find him when they feel ready.

And what they get is a direct invitation, Come and See. The rest, as they say, is history. Today more than 1/3 of the world's population, about 2.1 billion people are Christians. It all started here. And this is how it continues.

We know that 1 in 5 of our online congregations were not regular worshippers before COVID. What were they looking for when they dipped into, or joined online congregations during lockdown? Where have they gone?

All around us, people are searching for meaning, and their search can take many forms, some try meditation; many try religion in different forms. And a good number tried our online congregations, or hovered around the fringes of our church communities for some time.

Jesus says, come and see, come and explore, let me help you to understand how all this fits together. There was nothing coercive about the way he engaged with them - only a gentle, gracious invitation to come and see, to hang out and find out more.

This invitation connects with some kind of desire, some kind of unmet need, a sense of longing. We need to encourage and equip all of God's people to notice what God is up to and who with. So...why not come and see? You can register to find out more here: oxford.anglican.org/come-and-see
