Fourth Sunday of Easter /Easter 3

This Sunday is traditionally called 'Good Shepherd Sunday, - after the gospel reading. This week our 10 am Parish Communion service is an All Age Communion service. We also have a said service of Holy Communion at 8.00 am. Sundays at Six is here this week and is an international Taize service. If you have not tried these simple, reflective Taize services why not come along. Morning Prayer continues on Zoom, Tuesday through Saturday.

The Collect

Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ
is the resurrection and the life:
raise us, who trust in him,
from the death of sin to the life of righteousness,
that we may seek those things which are above,
where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion

Merciful Father,
you gave your Son Jesus Christ
to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life
and rise again:
keep us always under his protection,
and give us grace to follow in his steps;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

36In Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. 37At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. 38Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, 'Please come to us without delay.' 39So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. 40Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, 'Tabitha, get up.' Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. 41He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. 42This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. 43Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner. Acts 9. 36-end

The Gospel Reading

22At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, 23and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. 24So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, 'How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.' 25Jesus answered, 'I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; 26but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. 27My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. 28I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. 29What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. 30The Father and I are one.' John 10. 22-30

Sunday's Hymns:

467 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds 589 (i) The king of love my shepherd is 622 Will you come and follow me

Thought for the week:

I am a digitabulist. That means that I collect thimbles. I have around 600 of them – but I confess that I can't actually use one when I sew!

It was my great aunt who started me on this hobby collection - she had been a sewing teacher and I inherited her collection of ten or so thimbles – including a very worn silver one like the one in this picture. Look carefully and you can see that the word 'Dorcas' is etched on it – as it is on many metal thimbles.

They take their name from the woman named Dorcas in Sunday's reading from Acts. Dorcas is not so much a sewing teacher as a prolific seamstress. She also undertook to care for the people around her and was much loved so that, as we read in the story, when she died, they sent for Peter. With prayer and the Holy Spirit, she was restored to life - and to her acts of service and sewing. Dorcas was great as sewing and at caring. What are our talents, and how might God be calling us to use them in His service right now?
