Thought for the week:

At Westcott House, the Theological College in Cambridge where I, and many others, trained for ordained ministry, there is an icon in the Chapel where we gathered three times a day for worship. You can see it here. In the icon Jesus holds an open Bible with words from John 15: you did not choose me, but I chose you.

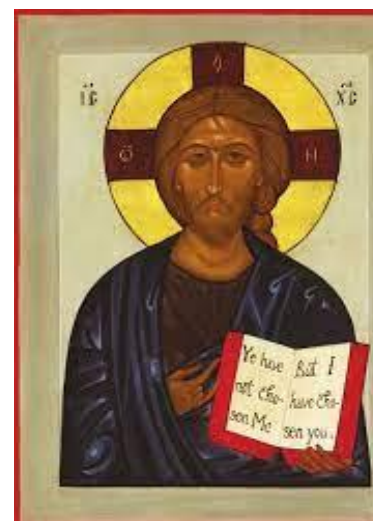

Those words were really important for eager ordinands to hear. There was a temptation to feel special – we had got through the selection process (which is gruelling). There was a temptation to feel that we were among the elite – those who had chosen to go to college and become leaders in the church.

It was important to be constantly reminded that it was Jesus who had chosen and called us to his service.

But there was also a temptation to feel powerless – the more we learned the more we realised that we needed to learn. The icon also reminded us that Jesus had chosen us – each of us – just as we were – and that he wanted each of us to minister WITH him, not FOR him.

The Westcott icon was a potent symbol and reminder to ordinands every day.

Of course, it is not just ordinands who need to hear that is it – perhaps every disciple needs a copy of that icon to remind us that Jesus calls every single one of us – just as we are.

Like last year, Churches Together will be ensuring we can't forget the work of Christian Aid as we join together using Zoom for our Christian Aid Week Service. It will be at 5pm and will kick off the week. We will sing songs, hear scripture, and learn about the work going on, in conjunction with churches across the UK and beyond!

If you need help connecting to Zoom, or if you want to phone in then please let me know.

The code to join us is: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/2557731522>

300,000 Steps

This year Christian Aid are asking people to take 300,000 steps to raise money for Christian Aid; and I've accepted the challenge. In the wet, dry, cold and warmth of May I will make sure that I make sure that people who are suffering most from climate change are getting the support they need through Christian Aid. If you can sponsor me, it would be like hearing you cheer me on!

You can get in touch with me via revmandm@gmail.com, or you can sponsor me directly by go to: www.facebook.com/donate/137225505049642/

Psalmathon

We need LOTS of readers, and we hope that everyone who reads will get their friends and family to sponsor them, raising bags of money for Christian Aid. So please join in! Go to <https://tinyurl.com/psalmathon> for more details and to book your place as a reader: you will be asked to specify a one-hour slot during which you will get your turn. There is a £5 registration fee. We will then send you full details and you will be encouraged to get sponsorship. Nearer the time, we'll confirm which Psalm(s) you will be reading, and we will send you the Zoom code for the event.

An invitation from Rabbi Jonathan Romain: with lockdown ending the week prior... come and meet the Bishop of Reading, the Rt Revd. Olivia Graham who will speak on THE CHALLENGES WE FACE, organised by the Berkshire Council of Christian and Jews on Tuesday June 29th at 8.00pm at Maidenhead Synagogue, Grenfell Lodge, Ray Park Road, Maidenhead, SL6 8QX (ample parking inside the Synagogue car park).
